My Learning Week

Welcome back to all our families and this week is our next My Learning Week when children complete all their learning in one book and bring this home to share with you to give you a snapshot of a typical week. Please enjoy sharing this with your child and do write a comment on the sheet at the end. We know some families share this via Zoom or other platforms as well and please encourage your child to explain their learning as this in itself is a valuable skill.

We would like all books to please come back to class by next Friday 26th April so we have them ready to pass on to the next class.

Reading café

Following the successful trial of a Reading Café in KS1 we will be inviting parents to come and read with your children in KS2 this term as well.

In KS1, the café will run in the afternoons this term on a rotation between Tuesday, Thursday and Fridays from 3.00-3.20pm.

In KS2, we will start the Reading Café in Week 3 (WB: 29/04/24) and it will always be on Fridays from 3.10-3.30pm.

The aim of the session is to enjoy sharing stories, poems and non-fiction books together. Your child can read with you or listen to you reading aloud to them. We thank you for your continued support with our promotion of reading for pleasure.
